

APPROVAL OF ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF PATERNITY AT A NORWEGIAN FOREIGN SERVICE MISSION

(Norwegian Act of 8. April 1981 No 7 relating to children and parents (the Children Act), section 7

1 Information regarding the child and the child's mother

The child (Surname, first name) / Sex	Date of birth / child expected born on
The child's mother (Surname, first name)	Date of birth / ID no.

2 Conditions for change of paternity

According to Norwegian law (the Children Act section 3), the man to whom the mother is married at the time of the child's birth, is regarded the child's legal father. Paternity can be changed if another man acknowledges paternity and the acknowledgement is accepted by the child's mother and her husband (the Children Act, section 7). It is also required by law that the Norwegian Labour and Welfare Service (NAV) accepts the acknowledgement.

Mr. ----- has acknowledged the paternity of the above mentioned child, and this acknowledgement has been accepted by the child's mother. If you are married to the mother of the child in question, and consequently regarded as the legal father of the child in question, please fill in the declaration in section 3, and if possible provide a more detailed explanation.

DNA-analysis of the child and the commissioning father is required to ensure that the correct paternity is determined.
